BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF LIAISON AND COMMENTS
The two CIA employees are members of a committee sanctioned by the Inspector General to investigate problems facing the junior officers in the Agency. One of the general solutions that this committee feels will solve many of the problems is the simplification of present machinery as well as putting teeth into the present regulations. Before making any final recommendations to the Inspector General, the committee would like to familiarize itself with the present career system used in the State Department. It might be considered advisable by this junior officer's committee to incorporate some of State's better points into their recommendations. It is therefore requested that an appointment with an appropriate State Department office be arranged.
